

Natalie P. Hall Violinist Bio

For over 25 years, Natalie Hall has devoted her life to music and the study of violin and viola.

Beginning in Chernivtsi, Ukraine, at Music School No.5, she performed throughout the region in quartets, orchestras, choirs, and numerous recitals.

Natalie is well respected for her commitment working with young people. She has been teaching for over 15 years.

Natalie has also performed in hundreds of weddings and special event throughout NYC area. She has substituted for Wicked and Evita in New York City. She performed at Arise New York Fest Outreach, an uplifting and energetic series of concerts in Central Park.

Natalie has also performed for special events at the Brooklyn Tabernacle and performed with Jeannie Ortega, contemporary Christian singer, songwriter and actress, who has a featured show on the Trinity Broadcasting Network, Salsa.

Natalie's debut album "Living For Jesus" holds hymns that are near and dear to her heart, which she arranged for violin and piano, violin solo, duet, trio, and string ensemble. The album carries Classical and Church music genres with elements of Ukrainian folk music. The theme of the album is to live a life of trusting Jesus.

Her recent solo releases include two Christmas tunes: a reggae take on "Joy to the World", and "In the Bleak Midwinter". In 2019 she released "Jesus Is All" in jazz style, this single debuted in christian radios around the world.